Terms and Conditions of Sale

All bills payable in CASH.

Every article embraced in the Catalogue will be sold to the highest bidder, without limit or reserve.

If any disputes arise between two or more bidders, the lot so in dispute shall immediately be put up again and re-sold.

The sale of any article is not to be set aside on account of any inaccuracies of description in the Catalogue; all articles are exposed for public exhibition, and are sold just AS THEY ARE without recourse.

To prevent errors in delivery, no lot can on any account be removed without presentation of the bill, and nothing will be delivered during the sale.

All bills must be paid, and purchases removed at the expense of the buyer, within twenty-four hours after the conclusion of the sale.

No article will be EXCHANGED or taken back under any circumstances whatever.

We will not be responsible for goods damaged in delivering.

Goods carefully packed and shipped.

Ladies and gentlemen unable to attend the sale can have their orders for buying executed by us without extra charge.

Chestnut Street

Philadelphia

NOTE.—In visiting Philadelphia again, I wish to state for the information of those who have not attended my sales, that no pains have been spared in bringing together this superb collection of paintings. Many of the pictures have been painted to my order and have certificates of originality on the canvas. Others are consigned by the artists themselves and are fresh from their easels, altogether constituting the most valuable collection that I have ever offered to the public.

Hoping my efforts will be duly appreciated,
I am yours truly,
A. D'HUYVETTER, Jr.,
